

Let me introduce:
Call of the Mall, new art event in Utrecht
Thursday 30 May
18-19 hrs, InParadiso Venice

As we're here anyway...

On Thursday 20 June, the opening of Call of the Mall will take place, an international and unique art event in Hoog Catharijne and Utrecht Central Station. More than 25 artists create new work for one of the Netherlands' busiest and best-known locations: a renowned shopping centre combined with a large railway station.

We are delighted to invite you to a short but pertinent presentation on the art event Call of the Mall. This presentation will take place during the Venice Biennale on Thursday 30 May, from 18 to 19 hrs at InParadiso Venice, a cafe in the Giardini della Biennale.

Because the project is unique in terms of its scale and location, and because many foreign artists are participating, we wish to present it to an international public. We do so with a drink and an informal but interesting conversation with some of the participating artists. Curator Maaïke Lauwaert will talk with: Christian Jankowski, Bik Van der Pol, Gabriel Lester and Wilfredo Prieto. She asks them about their first impression of the shopping centre, about the work they made for Call of the Mall and about how art contributes to this place.

Please let us know if you want to join the party and presentation before May 27th at lieke@kunstinhetstationsgebied.nl
